

April 2017 Licensure Updates:

Arkansas

A licensed respiratory care practitioner is no longer required for durable medical equipment companies. This license has been removed from the licensure database.

Alabama

The orthotic fitter license is no longer required for off-the-shelf products when a supplier is acting as a cashier for a packaged off-the-shelf product with no reference to the item.