

March 2016 Licensure Updates:

NV – Nevada State Board of Medical Examiners now requires a respiratory care practitioner for therapeutic and diagnostic use of medical gas and maintenance of associated equipment; CPAP/BiPAP setup and education as well as training relating to the practice of respiratory care

PA – Pennsylvania Department of Health, Drug, Device and Cosmetic Program clarified specific required certificate(s) for oxygen and respiratory products and services